

Words are Not Enough

Snippets From Press Releases: <http://speaker.house.gov/>

3-16-07

“The American people made clear in last fall’s election, however, that they have lost confidence in the President’s ability to bring the war to an end. They want a new direction on Iraq.”

3-23-07

Pelosi on Iraq Bill: ‘Benchmarks Without Deadlines Are Just Words; After Four Years, Words Are Not Enough’...

“Today, the Congress has an historic opportunity: to vote to end the war in Iraq.....
“Each Member of the House will make a choice – the world is watching for our decision.
.....The American people want a New Direction in Iraq. Today the Congress will provide it.”

4-23-07

“An overwhelming majority of Americans, bipartisan majorities in both houses of Congress, military experts and the Iraq Study Group believe that a responsible end to the war best advances our national security needs.”

5-1-07

“Mindful of our responsibility to the Constitution and to the American people, I’m pleased to join in signing this Iraq legislation, which is so important to our national security. This legislation respects the wishes of the American people to end the Iraq war. ...“I’m pleased to sign this legislation, which passed both Houses of Congress, with bipartisan support.

05-01-2007

Pelosi: ‘The President Wants a Blank Check; the Congress is Not Going to Give It to Him’
6-13-07

“The American people cannot and should not have to wait until later this year for changes in your flawed Iraq policy.”

“There is an obligation to act now.”

We The People For Peace

We The People, of your constituency, wholeheartedly support ending the Iraq war and setting a short-term deadline for bringing our troops home. Your vote for H.R. 2206 in May 2007, demonstrated your inability to stand courageously with the people. Therefore, we ask you to step aside and resign now, so we can elect someone who will honor and support our intent for peace.

www.WeThePeopleForPeace.org Empowering Peace Now!